

[Rose Bowl ]

In the United States, New Year's Day begins with the Rose Parade. More than 60 floats, which are decorated with hundreds of thousands of roses, parade through the town. After the parade, the final game of the college football season is held. This game is called the "Rose Bowl."