

[St. Valentine's Day]

St. Valentine's story begins in the third century. During the time of the Roman Emperor Claudius II, a Christian priest named Valentine secretly wedded people forbidden to marry by Roman law.