[St. Valentine's Day   ]

At the time, Claudius was attempting to raise a large army - he thought that single men would make better fighters as they wouldn't be worrying about a family back home. Valentine was arrested and beheaded on February 14th, 269. He has since become the patron saint of lovers.