

[Easter ]

In the Christian faith Easter is celebrated to commemorate the Resurrection of Christ. So it is the most sacred of all holy days. Easter is the first Sunday after the first full moon after the vernal equinox. Easter is therefore bound never to fall before March 22 or after April 25. Now you know why Easter changes around from year to year.