

[June Wedding]

Most people get married on a Saturday. Usually there is a church service in the morning in which the bride and groom are married by a vicar. Afterwards the married couple will hold a wedding reception at a hotel. They will often invite their families and friends.