

[Graduation ]

Graduation ceremonies in Australia are usually very relaxed. The students often give speeches about their time at the school and certificates are awarded to the students. It is both a happy and sad event.